

IECQ 2022 Annual Meetings

General Information and Program

2022-03

GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE ANNUAL SERIES OF MEETINGS OF THE IECQ SYSTEM

The following information is to facilitate conducting the meetings via remote participation.

Coordinated Universal Time UTC Time Zone from 26th April to 28th April 2022

Meeting Details:

The 2022 series of meetings includes meetings of IECQ Avionics Forum (AUF), the IECQ Conformity Assessment Bodies Committee (CABC) and the IECQ Management Committee (MC).

All the programmed meetings will be conducted via remote participation, utilising Zoom Meeting facilities. Please refer to each meeting agenda for that meetings Zoom Meeting registration details. Note all stated times are Coordinated Universal Time UTC Time Zone, please note conversions for UTC to your location's time zone can be done using:

<https://www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/converter.html>

Registration:

In a change to previous years, the IECQ Annual meetings program will be utilising the Zoom Meeting Platform and the platforms integrated registration facility. Delegates participation for attendance in the various IECQ 2022 Remote Meetings will be approved and confirm by completing the Zoom Meeting registration form for each meeting the delegate seeks to participate in.

The most notable changes for members and experts are the requirements to register separately for each meeting and receiving a personalised unique joining link for each meeting once approved and confirmed. We ask members and experts to follow closely the instructions on the registration pages to ensure you are identified correctly in the meetings.

Zoom Meeting registration links unique for each meeting are contained in the below program.

IECQ Meeting information, schedules and agendas will be available via our usual IECQ website meetings page for 2022 meetings once published.

If you are experiencing any problems, please contact IECQ Secretariat.
